AWARDS

Virtual Showroom — ADDY Award (Lexington Chapter), 2024

- Winner of a Gold ADDY for Microsite and Silver ADDY for User Experience. Recognized for best project in the Online & Interactive category.
- The Virtual Showroom is a web-based immersive microsite inviting users to view products in popular decors to provide an elevated, interactive shopping experience. From each design space, users can view fans in AR, swap finishes and products, see technical details, and follow a path to purchase.
- My contributions included co-conceptualizing and leading the project from gaining executive stakeholder approval to publishing. I authored the copy, provided creative direction, performed coding, and project managed a small cross-functional team to complete the project within six months.

Powerfoil Fanatomy — ADDY Award (Lexington Chapter), 2023

- Winner of a Silver ADDY for Microsite.
- The Powerfoil Fanatomy is a web-based microsite showcasing an interactive exploding product animation of Big Ass Fans' best-selling HVLS fan, highlighting key product features and customer benefits.
- My contributions included conceptualizing and leading the project, including storyboarding, copywriting, and providing the creative direction on animated sequences and on-screen layout.
